

POLICY ON PERSONAL DATA AND COOKIES

Dear User!

Pursuant to Regulation 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council (EC) of 27 April 2016 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data (https://zakon.rada.gov.ua/laws/show/984_008-16#Text) and in order to safeguard your privacy, we are introducing you, dear User, to this "Privacy and cookie policy" (hereinafter "Policy").

This website <https://en.utomorrow.org/> (the "Site") is owned and operated by Forum Management Company LLC.

We can be reached at <https://en.utomorrow.org/>.

Our Site uses Personal Information and cookies.

WHAT ARE COOKIES? PERSONAL DATA?

"Cookie" is a text file placed by us or our remarketing partners on your computer by a web page server. Our cookies do not run programs or deliver viruses to your computer. Cookies are uniquely assigned to your computer and can only be read by a web server in the domain that issued the cookie to your computer.

One of the primary purposes of a cookie is to provide a convenient feature to save you time. A cookie signals to the server that you have returned to a particular page. For example, when you set up a page on a site or register on a site, a cookie helps the site remember your specific information on subsequent visits. It makes it easier to record your personal information, such as your billing address or site settings. When you return to the same Web site where the information you previously provided was stored, you can easily use the features of the site that you customized.

For more information about managing cookies, see your browser's help file or websites such as www.allaboutcookies.org.

"Personal Information" is information or a collection of information about an individual who is or can be specifically identified by that information.

To get the most out of <https://en.utomorrow.org/>, you must accept this Policy.

This Policy is accepted by you on terms of accession agreement according to article 634 of Civil Code of Ukraine and comes into force from the moment of its acceptance, expressed in pressing the "Accept" button in a pop-up window on our website <https://en.utomorrow.org/>. By pressing it we acknowledge that you have read this Policy, fully and unconditionally accept all its terms and conditions without any exceptions and/or limitations and allow us to use cookies on your computer.

If you choose not to "Accept" this Policy and do not allow the use of cookies, we warn you that this refusal may affect the effectiveness of certain features on our <https://en.utomorrow.org/> pages.

You may change your cookie preferences regarding our site at any time by clicking "Change Cookie Preferences". Most web browsers allow some control over cookies through the browser settings.

1. COLLECTION AND USE OF COOKIES

1.1. WHAT COOKIES DOES THE SITE USE?

The cookies used on the site have been classified according to the ICC UK classifier.

We use the following categories of cookies:

Category 1: Strictly Necessary Files

These cookies are important to allow you to navigate the site and use its features, such as accessing secure areas of the site, personal accounts.

Category 2: Performance Cookies

These cookies collect information about how visitors use the site, such as which pages are visited most often. These cookies do not collect information that identifies a visitor. All information these cookies collect is generalized and therefore anonymous. These cookies are only used to improve the site.

Category 3: Functional cookies

These cookies allow the site to remember choices you make (such as your username, language, or the region you are in) and provide enhanced, more personal features. For example, the site may provide you with local weather reports or traffic news by storing the region in which you are currently located in a cookie. The information these cookies collect may be hidden (disabling location information), and these cookies cannot track your browsing activity on other sites.

Category 4: Advertising cookies

These cookies are used for ads that are more important to you and your interests. They are also used to limit the number of ads you see and to measure the effectiveness of advertising campaigns. They are usually placed by advertising networks with the permission of the site operator. They remember that you visited the site, and this information is shared with other organizations, such as advertisers. Often enough, advertising cookies will be associated with site functionality provided by another organization.

Using social media icons, our customers can share or bookmark a page. These icons are links to social media sites owned by third parties who, in turn, may record information about your online activities, including on this site. Please review the respective terms of use and privacy policies of such websites to understand how they use your data and how you can reject their use of your data and delete it.
